Dedication Mr. Orville Hightower

The Senior Class proudly dedicates this '73 La-Del to Mr. Orville Hightower who has served twenty-three years as vocational agriculture teacher at Delmar. His dedication to the school, to the community, and to the students merits this honor. We salute you, Mr. Hightower, and thank you for your help and consideration.

Superintendent's Message

To the Staff of the La-Del and Seniors of 1973:

May I take this opportunity to congratulate you on the business-like behavior that you have displayed in editing and publishing the 1973 La-Del. The experiences and memories of this year will always be near in the content of this book. May you and others who purchase copies cherish each page through the passing years and with proper spirit reflect on school days and use the inspirations to spur you on to goals always ahead.

J. C. Deatherage
Superintendent

Principals

Mr. Ralph Taylor

Mr. Taylor has served Delmar as high school principal for nine years. He is very fair and always listens to the students problems.

Mr. Douglas Lane

Mr. Lane has served Delmar as elementary principal for five years. He is devoted to the education of his students and tries to teach them self-discipline.
